COURT DRESS A HUMMER.

KEENE FILLY RUNS AWAY FROM HER COMPANY IN SPINAWAY STAKES.

Mentha, Her Stable Companion, Is Third—Should Have Been Second—Sanfara Makes the Easterners Take Notice—They Want Her.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 8.—The Famous Spinaway Stakes of $10,000 at five and a half furlongs for two-year-old fillies was captured this afternoon by James R. Keene's unbeaten Court Dress in impressive style. Her opposition was numerically and in point of class the best of their age and sex that has competed in a race this season. The flying daughter of Disguise and Hampton Belle ran coupled with Mentha. She only recently recovered from an aggravated attack of bucked shins and her display of speed today was of the sensational order. She went away as if shot out of a catapult and nothing even got near enough to her to take the kink out of her neck. The success of the Keene colors in running first and third in the important race aroused great enthusiasm. It was recalled that the great racing establishment had won thus far this season all of the big two-year-old stakes. Mentha was unlucky in losing out for second place in a close finish, the jockey seemingly regarding the persistent attentions of John Sanford's Kennyetto too lightly.

Aside from the big two-year-old feature the card was composed of five overnight races. The promised appearance of Inferno, the Canadian bred horse, was eagerly awaited. There were many commissions for this widely heralded crack and a wail, loud and long, went up when the opening odds about him were displayed. The majority of his backers were firmly convinced that the ring would hold the Havoc horse cheaply. Some enormous wagers at odds-on went in on him, however. His owner, J. E. Seagram, who was recently elected President of the Ontario Jockey Club, was present and the recipient of many congratulations after Inferno's victory.

Sanfara came out of the west and vanquished good company, conceding weight all around, in the opening dash. J. J. O'Flaherty refused an offer of $8,000 for the fleet Ingoldsby three-year-old before the race. After the race he could have sold her for $12,000. She is entered in five stakes at the Sheepshead Bay fall meeting.

Delcanta, after many disappointments, won a steeplechase over the short course. Experts said he was lucky in view of the mishandling of Mackey Dwyer. Jockey Dupee was hauled before the stewards to explain his ride. He stated that his riding orders were to hold the horse in check during the early running, reserving him for a quarter-mile end sprint. The incident is considered closed.

John A. Drake's fast horse Rebo ran off and hid in the mile selling race. The second choice Ebony was practically left at the post and finished an easy second.

The Robin Hood fiasco, in which the absence of that horse's customary hood adornment, was the cause of his running such a bad race, has aroused the stewards to action and hereafter trainers must furnish the information at the time of entry as to whether their horses will wear blinkers in their races, thus holding the trainer responsible.

Glamor, Toddles, Killiecrankie and Yankee Girl were all cut down, more or less seriously, in the stake. Watergrass met the same fate in the first race.

Sol Lichtenstein, the noted bookmaker, was taken suddenly ill early in the afternoon and was removed to his home.

A man with a pocket filled with matches sat down on them and they ignited. A big flurry ensued and for a few minutes there was plenty of excitement among the women folks in the grandstand.

An unusual happening was the absence of any clubhouse betting on the first race today.

TOM BOWLING'S PROWESS AS A RACEHORSE.

Colonel Tarlton Says He Was a Better Horse Than Sysonby—An Incident of His Career.

Cincinnati, O., August 8.—Colonel L. P. Tarlton ran up from his farm near Frankfort one day last week to have a look at the racing. Colonel Tarlton was for many years one of the Latonia judges. He comes from a racing family, his forbears having bred and raced horses in Kentucky and throughout the south as far back as 1805. Colonel Tarlton is himself an enthusiastic student of breeding, and few men are better posted on the history and traditions of the turf than he. Knowing Colonel Tarlton's weakness, and his ability also as a "horse conversationalist," he had not been on the grounds long until some one started an argument as to the superiority of the horses of the present over those of earlier days.

"I maintain, sir," said the colonel, "that we have scarcely any real racehorses nowadays. We have a lot of flash-in-the-pan performers that can run five or six furlongs, but when it comes to packing weight and going a journey at a fast pace they are not in it with the old-timers.

"Take for example such horses as Tom Bowling, Blue Eyes, Enquirer, Duke of Magenta, etc., not to mention Longfellow, Harry Bassett, Checkmate and others of that date; where are their equals now? We havn't got them. We don't breed that kind, or at least it is very seldom that we produce a horse that would rank with any of those named. The trouble is that in the craze for speed we pay too little attention to individuality. In order to get the fashionable blood, we breed to gangling, awkward, spindle-legged brothers and sisters to famous English racehorses, and as a consequence our horses are deteriorating. I do not recall that we have imported more than four great horses, that is royally bred ones, that were at the same time great racehorses and horses of fine individuality, in the last twenty years, namely St. Blaise, Ormonde, Meddler, and Mr. Belmont's recent importation, Rock Sand. There's where the English have it all over us. They not only want blood in breeding, but they insist on racing quality and individuality as well."

Asked as to the best racehorse he had ever seen, Colonel Tarlton replied:

"Tom Bowling by all means. There was a real horse for you; carry any weight, go any route, and run you a record quarter in any part of the journey. His only fault was that he was a bad actor at the post. He was not a mean horse, just nervous and high strung. Among many of his great performances, I recall one race in partiuclar, that was the most remarkable that ever came under my observation. It was at Lexington. I was a stripling, just out of college. At that time the Kentucky Association was very exclusive and none but members of the club could hold any official position on the track. On this particular occasion the starter was ill, or unable to attend to his duties for some reason or other, and some of the members asked me if I would tap the drum for them that day. I did not have much confidence in myself as a starter, but they insisted that I could do it all right, and so I told them I would.

"As luck would have it Tom Bowling was a starter in a stake race at a mile and five-eighths, in which some eight or ten went to the post. Colonel Price McGrath had a big nigger that weighed over 200 pounds that always led Tom Bowling to the post and held him there until the start was made. On this occasion Colonel McGrath rode over to the post with me. Tom Bowling was unusually fractious and the nigger in order to control him took a double wrap on the chin strap. After skirmishing around for position a little while Tom Bowling got straight and Colonel McGrath yelled 'Let 'em go.' I tapped the drum and away the field went, but the nigger couldn't let loose of Tom Bowling quick enough, and the horse dragged him a hundred yards before he freed himself. Of course, everybody thought he was out of the race. But just then something wonderful happened. Tom Bowling went on after his horses like a streak of lightning and before they had gone three furlongs he was in front of them. He stayed in front and won as he pleased.

"For years afterwards just how fast Tom Bowling ran that first quarter was matter for argument around Lexington. They caught him all the way from 19 to 22 seconds. It seems incredible to believe that any horse could run a quarter of a mile in 19 seconds, but if any horse ever could that one was Tom Bowling. He could carry his weight—and did it—and run a fast two mile race, and finish the last quarter in 24 seconds. None but a great horse can do that."

Asked if Tom Bowling was as good a horse as Sysonby, Colonel Tarlton said:

"I think he was a better horse than Sysonby. I think he was the best horse we have had since the time of Lexington. Of course, it is a difficult matter to compare horses of different eras, and besides on account of Sysonby's early death we shall never know just exactly how good he was. But, in coon phrase, Tom Bowling 'done gone and showed' what he could do. He was a sure enough racehorse."

Colonel Tarlton's argument was not delivered without a touch of asperity here and there when remarks were interjected, and sotto voice to some friends he remarked aside: "A lot of these people graduate from cigar stores into the racing game, and after a year's experience they think they know it all. I like to take them down a peg or two once in a while."

FIFTY DISQUALIFICATIONS THUS FAR THIS YEAR.

There have been fifty disqualifications this year. This is fifteen less than the number of horses set back from January 1 to August 8 last year. The greatest number of these disqualifications have occurred at Latonia. To date there have been eight at the Kentucky track. There were four each at Ascot Park, Oakland, City Park, Crescent Park and Fort Erie; three at Brighton Beach; two each at Oaklawn, Lexington, Memphis, Toronto and Windsor; one each at Bennings, Nashville, Pimlico Louisville, Belmont Park, Hamilton, Sheepshead Bay and Saratoga. MORNING TRIALS AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 8.—Visitors to the course during the early morning hours are more numerous here than at any of the tracks in the vicinity of New York City. This is natural because the local course is more easily reached and, again, the majority of those who are here for the season have the leisure as well as the inclination to watch the trials of the horses. Among the two-year-olds, De Mund and Horace E., in the stable of Paul J. and Roy A. Rainey, are the most talked of and the most highly regarded. Both are in excellent condition and both have worked fast. De Mund has shown five furlongs better than 1:00 and he did it easily. He is to carry the Rainey colors in the Saratoga Special. Pete Coyne has George J. Long's filly Altuda as fit as a fiddle. Al Powell is ready to race to his best form. Tom Welsh is sending Adam along regularly, but it is not known that he intends to race the son of Flying Fox, which was brought over for stud purposes by Frank C. Bishop. Charles Edward has a fancy for the Saratoga course and should be worthy of serious consideration when trainer Joyner makes up his mind to start him. Dalvay has dickey legs, but they do not seem to be troubling him just now. Henry McDaniel is handling him carefully and he should win a race before the end of the meeting. John E. Madden hasn't told any one what his notions are about Hammeraway, but the colt is ready and should be remembered. Mohawk II. is ready for the Travers Stakes Saturday. Oaklawn has been going along satisfactorily. Trainer Joyner, however, has made no announcement as to when he is to start. King's Daughter, Toots Mook, Tiptoe, Vinton, Nemesis, Superman, Watergrass and Yankee Gun are all worth remembering for the next time out.

ACCOUNTANT VERSUS BEN HODDER.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 8.—William Shields is being besieged with offers for his crack three-year-old Ben Hodder. The fact that The Commoner colt has two important stake engagements at this meeting, the Travers and the Derby, and that Shaw is reported to have said since he rode him yesterday that he was the best horse he had been astride this year, created a brisk competition for the youngster.

"Diamond" Jim Brady, when he heard of the extravagant claims made on behalf of Ben Hodder, offered to bet $20,000 to $10,000 that his horse Accountant would beat the Shields colt at their first meeting. Shields wired his father the proposition and it is expected that the offer will be taken up by the plunging elder.

EDENWOLD FARM IS SOLD.

Nashville, Tenn., August 8.—Edenwold, the stock farm near this city, owned by W. O. Parmer, has been sold to a local syndicate for $50,000, and will be cut up into town lots. Edenwold is the home of The Commoner and a band of good broodmares.

TALENT CANNOT PICK THEM.

SUPPORTERS OF FAVORITES HAVE ANOTHER BAD DAY AT LATONIA.

Miss Doyle and Collonade Their Only Two—Douglas Park Officials Are Named—Elastic Goes Back to the Corrigan Barn.

Cincinnati, O., August 8.—With the memory of thirteen favorites going down to defeat in fourteen races, the talent today resumed their onslaught against the books with do or die determination, only to be again grievously disappointed in their selections for the first two races. Miss Doyle afforded them slight consolation by winning the third at short odds, and so did Collonade in the fifth. Thereafter outsiders got most of the money. The defeats of Weberfields, Decklaw, Solon, Optional and St. Paris gave the bookmakers an exceptional chance to clean up, but their timidity cost them considerable. With the absence of several layers who were willing at all times to handle a fair commission, the ring here at present is a joke. If a bettor desires to place a fair sized wager he is unable to get accommodated unless he is willing to accept a ridiculously short price for his money.

The jumping race went to Dalesman in a spirited finish with Bluemint, which showed good form and forced the Bratton candidate to do his best to head him out in the final drive. Solon, coupled with Modredlaw and the mainstay of the Ferriss entry, repeated the trick of his former start and bolted when he seemed the probable winner.

Miss Doyle and Collonade had it easy in their respective races. The latter might have been given a strong argument by Santon, but evidently his connections did not think the horse up to a bruising contest. He was given an easy race and is no doubt qualifying, as Two Bells did from the same stable.

Announcement was made today by John Hachmeister that A. W. Hamilton would be the presiding judge at Douglas Park. Martin Nathanson will will be associate judge, handicapper and racing secretary; A. B. Dade will do the starting.

The judges today ordered that Elastic, recently claimed from Edward Corrigan by Thomas Sayers, acting for Lemp & Co., be returned to Mr. Corrigan on the ground that trainer Sayers did not have the authority to claim the horse.

George Taylor, who was considered among the foremost riders in this country in the late eighties, had the mount on Allinda in the fifth race. The younger generation clearly has it on him, at least in the matter of getting away from the post.

RAM'S HORN DIES AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

Son of Bute and Aunt Tessa Succumbs to Inflammation of the Bowels—His Record.

New York, August 8.—Ram's Horn, the four-year-old bay colt by Bute—Aunt Tessa, died from inflammation of the bowels at Sheepshead Bay track today. Ram's Horn was bred by James B. Haggin and was purchased for something like $250 by Captain Jim Williams at a sale of yearlings in Lexington, Ky., in December 1903. While he was under the eye of Captain Williams, he was ostensibly trained and raced in the name of W. S. Williams, the captain's son. The death of the colt will be a hard blow to the veteran Kentucky horseman. He has since Ram's Horn's days as a two-year-old at the Chicago tracks declared him the best racehorse he ever had anything to do with, even pronouncing him a better horse than was Luke Blackburn, which he sold to the Dwyers as a two-year-old. Last winter at the St. Charles Hotel in New Orleans Captain Williams was offered $30,000 for Ram's Horn. Morris L. Hayman, acting for Senator P. H. McCarren, made the offer, which was not entertained.

Ram's Horn may have been the best western horse of the present year. He was not a fortunate horse. Sickness and mischances of one sort and another marred his career, but when thoroughly at his best he was undoubtedly a grand racer. He was richly bred, very fast, a weight carrier of high degree and a stayer. The two greatest performances markinng his career were his successes in the Montgomery Handicap of last year and the Brighton Handicap of this year. In the Montgomery he easily vanquished the best handicap horses of the west, gave them all weight, won in a canter and broke the track record. He was a remarkable three-year-old that day, but went amiss immediately after the race. In the Brighton Handicap he scored a notable achievement when he ran a mile and a quarter in 2:03⅘, one of the fastest performances on record at the distance, very few horses having ever run faster than 2:04. His death is a heartbreaking misfortune to Captain Jim Williams, who has always insisted he was a much greater racer than the records show him to be. His record is as follows:

Year.	Sts.	1st	2nd.	3d.	Un.	Amt.
1904	19	10	3	4	2	$ 4,926
1905	13	5	4	2	2	9,266
1906	11	5	2	0	4	27,075
Totals	43	20	9	6	8	$41,267

GRACE CURTIS MONEY IS REFUNDED.

Buffalo, N.Y., August 8.—Five favorites today rewarded their followers at Fort Erie. A free gate for ladies increased the attendance and the speculation was lively throughout the afternoon. The intended feature of the card was a handicap at six and one-half furlongs, but it was declared off on account of the numerous scratches. The finishes in four out of the six races were close and exciting. Some delay was occasioned in the fourth race when it was found that Grace Curtis had failed to show up at the proper time. The money was refunded to those who bet on the mare and other bets were allowed to stand.

SARATOGA'S NEW JUMPS ARE SAFE.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 8.—The jumps in the steeplechase course here have been reconstructed and there is general praise for them. They are now all banks topped with brush with light round poles at the base and top as guides. This does away with the old complaints of flying timbers, as the poor jumpers hit the fences, and will certainly tend to reduce materially the number of accidents. The cross country delegation here is greater than it has been in years, and anything that can be done to improve this grade of the sport will be done.

WALKER IS STRICKEN WITH APPENDICITIS.

Saratoga. N. Y., August 8.—Charles Walker has just undergone an operation for appendicitis at one of the local hospitals. Walker, in the old days of Guttenberg and Clifton, owned a formidable stable, Now or Never, which won a number of important races on the big tracks, being one of the string that carried his colors. When he gave up his stable he gave his entire attention to warmups and so keen a judge did he become that he has for years been able to pick winners enough to bring him a comfortable income.

KEENE SUING; NOT BEING SUED.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 8.—The statement emanating from Lexington, Ky., that some mares owned by J. O. Keene were to be sold at sheriff's sale to satisfy a judgment for $375 against the well-known horseman brings forth a protest from the latter. Mr. Keene says that he has no interest in these horses except for their keep. They belong to Dr. Henry Cook of New York. Keene took care of them and in turn passed them over to Mr. Cassidy, the man who is suing for both his bill and Keene's.

REFUSE ENTRIES FROM ALGONQUIN STABLE.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 8.—The stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association have announced that in the future the entries of the horses racing in the name of the Algonquin stable would be refused. No reasons were given for the ruling, but it is understood that it is a case of explaining ownership. Tom Cogan ran and won in the name of this stable at Brighton on Saturday.

DIAMOND JUBILEE IN HIS NEW HOME.

New York, August 8.—The safe arrival of the famous race horse Diamond Jubilee at Buenos Ayres is announced in cablegrams. The horse, for which Senor Ignacio Corroas paid King Edward VII. $150,000, arrived on the steamer Nile yesterday and was sent to Haras Ojo de Agua, the establishment of his new owner. At the wharf there was a large gathering of Argentine sportsmen.

The stakes to which the July entries were supplementary had previously received nomination at a prior closing as follows: September Stakes, 41; Flight Stakes, 61; Autumn Stakes, 81; Flatbush Stakes, 78; Great Eastern Handicap, 88.

The Twin City is the most important handicap of the autumn meeting. It is a dash of a mile and a quarter with $10,000 added, and from the quality of its nominations is bound to furnish a notable contest. The entries are as follows:

Inferno	4

Three nominations ineligible under the rules.

Some high-class horses, with few or no engagements at Saratoga, have been heavily engaged in these stakes and it is evident some interesting turf problems are to be threshed out at Sheepshead Bay in September. For instance, it is well known that Barney Schreiber has averred that when he sold Horace E. for $25,000, he retained a better horse in Jack Atkin. Now Horace E. has been nominated to the Flight, Autumn, Flatbush, Golden Rod, Dash and Partridge Stakes and the Great Eastern Handicap. So has Jack Atkin. It seems abundant opportunity to settle the question their relative merits is here provided. Incidentally Fountainblue has been entered in all the foregoing events. The star three-year-old of the San Francisco-Oakland campaign, Dr. Gardner, has been nominated to the Twin City, Turf, Russet, Autumn and Flying Handicaps and the September, Flight, Dolphin and Reapers Stakes. This fine colt has had a long rest and should cut quite a figure in his fall engagements. Sir Huon's name appears in the entry lists of the September Stakes, Twin City Handicap and the three Autumn Handicaps. Other well-engaged western horses entered are Dishabille, Outcome, Minnie Adams, Neva Lee, Tokalon, Proper, Cottontown, First Mason, True Wing, Nealon, Good Luck, Ram's Horn, Au Revoir, Miss Crawford, Lady Navarre, Brancas, Colonial Girl, Corn Blossom, Yazd, Lancastrian, Running Water, Content, Nifo, First Premium, A. Muskoday, King's Daughter, Lady Anne, Sanfara, Deutschland, Zienap, Dalvay, Handzarra, James Reddick, The Broker, Flying Wing, Proposer, Tom McGrath, Guiding Star, Security, Rapid Water, Charles G. Gates, Faust, Ethon, Tourenne, Yankee Girl, Aviston, Kentucky Beau, Arcite, Dashaway, Binondo, Redgauntlet, Altuda, Berwick, Mark Gumberts, Remiss, Suada, Ironton, Victoria B. and others of lesser note.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

Thos. D., Chicago. Yes, but it being a selling purse but one could start.

Phil S., Kansas City, Mo. The track was fast when the race was run. Slight rain fell subsequently. Any one who knows anything about racing would not question the condition of the track in view of the time scored in the race.

H. H., Chicago. The race in which you backed Carthage to win was declared off. That made all bets on that race draws. The fact that Carthage afterward ran in a substituted race, of which neither you nor the bookmaker had knowledge, cut no figure in the matter. Your money should be returned at once. The only right the bookmaker has to it is that of a holdup man.

Time, 24⅕, 49⅖, 1:15⅖.

Winner—B. c, by Donald A.—Sallie Woodford (trained by R. Stickney).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Prince of Pless, much the best, was practically left, but closed a big gap under poor handling and won going away fast. Libation, away forwardly, ran close up all the way, wore down Weberfields in the stretch and seemed a certain winner, but tired in the final strides. Weberfields showed speed, but tired after going five furlongs. Shipwreck was in close quarters for the first half and ran a good race. St. Denis was forced to go wide most of the way. Fiasco quit after going a half. Platt was caught in a jam in the first furlong.

Scratched—63948 Redcoat, 105.

Overweights—Libation, 1½ pounds.

64101 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. (1:00⅗—2—110.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

Winner—B. f, by Daniel—Kilt (trained by S. Hudson).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Beautiful Mayo ran as if best, was away in a good position, assumed a long lead at once and increased her advantage with every stride and won eased to a canter. Frank Flesher suffered from interference soon after the start and had to close a big gap, finished going fast and outgamed Triumphant in the last few strides. The latter ran a good race and had a rough trip. Froward, going wide all the way, ran well and was gaining at the end. Tom Morgan saved ground all the way. Hereafter quit after going a fast quarter. Still Alarm was practically left. Decklaw ran well to the stretch and tired.

Winner—Ch. m, by The Commoner—Thistle, by Himyar (trained by H. McCarren, Jr.).

Went to post at 3:33. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Miss Doyle, much the best, had a rough trip and was almost thrown soon after the start and suffered from additional interference in the first half, had to go wide into the stretch, but finished going fast and won with plenty in reserve. Tern's Rod also had a rough trip, but came fast through the stretch and was an easy second. La Fayette began slowly and was given a bad ride, finished gamely and can do much better. Banposal broke from an outer position and caused a jam by going to the inner rail, showed speed, but tired from chasing Nonie Lucille. The latter showed her customary high order of speed, but tired fast after going three-quarters. Peter Nathaniel was pocketed most of the way. Chief Millikin was almost thrown at the start. Whippoorwill broke badly and had scant chance.

Winner—B. h, by Ben Brush—Innerdale, by Galliard (trained by R. Stickney).
Went to post at 4:02. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Dalesman had to be hard ridden all the way, wore down the early leaders steadily and, after a sharp brush with Bluemint in the stretch, came away and won well in hand. Bluemint ran a good race, forced a fast pace, fenced well and, better handled, would have won. Modredlaw ran with a choppy stride and blundered several times at the jumps, but responded well to punishment and outgamed Ohio King in the final drive. The latter ran a fairly good race only and tired badly after going one turn of the field. Solon, probably much the best, fenced well and was about to assume the lead when he ran out at the water jump.

Winner—B. h, by Fonso—Lilly M. (trained by F. Doss).
Went to post at 4:28. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Collonade outpaced the others from the start and won under restraint. Elude, badly ridden, was going fast in the stretch after making up ground, but Taylor almost fell off when he attempted to ride a strong finish. Dr. Burch showed speed for the first half, but tired and was a lucky third. Santon was only qualifying and can probably beat the winner when fit and meant, was badly ridden and taken wide for the first half, came with a rush through the stretch and would have been third in a few more strides. Blucher tired badly after going a half.

Lacene, reserved in the early stages, saved ground when turning into the stretch and appeared a certain winner when a furlong out, but tired in the final drive. Bitter Hand forced the early pace, but tired after going five furlongs. Optional showed speed, but tired as if short and will improve. Norwood Ohio quit after going a half. Amberita, away well, followed St. Paris closely for the first three-quarters, then wore him down on the stretch turn and held the race safe thereafter. Cotillion ran a good race and came fast through the stretch. St. Paris, away running, showed the most speed for the first three-quarters, but tired and had to be hard ridden to save third place. Huzzah ran a good race and will improve. Marshal Ney was a prominent contender to the last furlong, where he tired. Swiftwing, almost left, ran a winning race and but for interference in the stretch would have been third. St. Sever, badly handled, ran a good race, but went wide all the way.

Winner—B. f, by Ingoldsby—Sankara (trained by J. Malin).
Went to post at 2:25. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving; third the same. Sanfara, a speed marvel, was able to spreadeagle her opponents from a flatfooted start, won cantering and was much the best. Zienap, crowded back in the early running, moved up rapidly on the outside on the last turn and finished with a belated rush. Wes, away very badly, got into prominent contention with a great display of speed and, after a strenuous effort to overhaul the leader, tired right at the end. Jack Dolan came fast from the rear and ran a good race. Old Faithful broke flying, but was forced out of position early, being unable to keep up, ran a bad race and is palpably unfit. Bill Phillips was pulling up at the start, closed a big gap and can do much better. Confederate made up a lot of ground in the last quarter after getting away poorly and trailing for the first half. Watergrass failed to stay, showed speed and can do better.

Winner—Br. c, by Del Paso II.—Canta (trained by M. Smart).
Went to post at 2:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third easily. Delcanta practically forced the pace throughout and came away decisively from Mackey Dwyer's challenge in the stretch. The latter was palpably short, ran under a choking pull for a mile and three-quarters, but tired when called on, was given a very bad ride, could probably have won and is in grand form. The Doctor essayed to make the running and several times got into a brief lead, but quit in the last half mile. Vestment fell over the third jump and was in the lead at the time. Pioneer performed poorly.

Winner—Br. g, by Percy—Cimerone (trained by E. Wishard).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving; third the same. Rebo spreadeagled the others in an amazing display of speed and was never fully extended. Ebony, nearly left, closed an immense gap into a fast going second. Water Dog was reserved under a pull for six furlongs, which enabled him to save third place, although tiring fast. Croix d'Or ran forwardly throughout and, though being pinned in next to the rail, just lost out for third place under a weak finish. Bragg finished well under an inadequate ride. Bribery gave a good display of speed for seven furlongs, but failed to stay. Celeres, poorly handled, loomed up momentarily on the far turn, then retired and ran a bad race for him.
Scratched—64058 Woolwich, 94; 64058^{3}Sir Russell, 86.

Winner—Ch. f, by Disguise—Hampton Belle (trained by J. Rowe).
Went to post at 3:57. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving; third the same. Court Dress, from a flying start, raced quickly into a long lead and, increasing her advantage as the race progressed, finally won pulling up. Kennyetto, a grand looker, was in nearest pursuit of the leader to the stretch turn, where she lost ground but, coming again, got up for second place after a terrific drive and is a coming good one. Mentha was also in forward and very game contention throughout, but tiring and boring out in the last couple of strides. Yankee Girl, away poorly, pocketed early and shut off, rushed through on the last turn and joined in the fight for a place, but tired right at the end and ran a grand race. Toddles got away slowly and was carried wide on the turns, but steadily improved her position into an easing up fifth. Glamor showed plenty of early speed, but failed to stay. Dollie Dollars was knocked to the rear in the first furlong and made up ground moderately afterwards. Danoscara ran very green, getting away poorly. Killiecrankie got away poorly. ran up on the far turn, failed in the stretch and was pulled up.

Inferno palpably outclassed the others, was reserved patiently in close attendance on the pacemaker to the far turn, where he forged to the front, coming away right at the end. They're Off was in nearest pursuit of the winner from the start and finished a good and fast going second. Magna Stella came like a shot from the rear, closing a big gap after getting away poorly. Went to post at 3:09. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Nervator, off in his stride, raced Reuben into subjection in the first half, but was driving to the limit at the end to stall off Oleasa. The latter, in keen contention all the way, made a determined challenge at the head of the stretch, but faltered in the final strides. Lady Carol was well up all the way and ran a good race. Reuben showed speed, had no mishaps and tired badly in the stretch run. Perdition ran well. The last three were off badly and had no chance after the start.

Tanbark began slowly, but worked her way up on the outside and closed up fast in the stretch. Crip ran forwardly throughout and had no mishaps, but did not run to his true form. Blue Coat ran behind Sheen until the stretch turn was reached, then raced him into subjection, but had to be put to a hard drive to stall off Oratorian. The latter was shuffled back after the start, went around and worked his way up on the outside and was pressing the winner closely at the finish. Left Guard, always well up, outran the others in the run through the stretch. There was much crowding after the start, in which Orderly was the chief sufferer. He made up a lot of ground after getting clear. Galetta and Sheen showed early speed, but failed to stay.

Bon Mot trailed for the best part of the journey, then moved up fast in the final furlong and appeared to have the race at his mercy at the sixteenth post, but Schilling quit riding. Winner—Ch. c, by Rensselaer—Grenadine (trained by J. H. Baker).
Went to post at 5:27. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gauze ran behind the pacemaker for half the journey, came away on the far turn and had a commanding lead when turning into the stretch, but had to be ridden out to stall off Lutie Mac. The latter ran the best race, was shuffled back at the start, had to go to the extreme outside, where she worked her way into a commanding position on the turn for home and forced Gauze to a drive to maintain his advantage. Vestryman ran a good race and will do soon. Pentagon had no mishaps, was outrun all the way and can do much better. Little Mike ran well to the stretch and tired. Annie Berry ran fairly well.
Scratched—64067 Miss Hawley, 95; 64067 Marimbo, 97; 64072 Oak Leaf, 95; 64008 Attraction, 95.
